

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

VOLUME 1—NUMBER 238

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JUNE 15, 1897.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

WILL BE CONFIRMED.

The Hawaiian Treaty Will Get the Requisite Two-Thirds.

CANVASS OF THE SENATE.

All the Details Settled And Will Go to Senate Soon.

SOME OF ITS PROVISIONS DETAILED.

Washington, June 13.—A treaty for the annexation of Hawaii to the United States will be sent to the Senate soon after the return of the President, unless present plans are altered. The treaty has been written and all its details were fully agreed upon before the President and Secretary Sherman left for the South. There is no doubt, it is said, of the President's acquiescence to the terms of the treaty for the reason that he was fully aware of them before he left.

The treaty is on the general lines of the treaty negotiated during the administration of President Harrison, and withdrawn by President Cleveland. It provides for annexation without the exaction of conditions on the part of the Hawaiian as to the form of government to be introduced to Hawaii, leaving that question to be entirely disposed of by the government of the United States.

The United States will agree, however, to assume the debt of the present Hawaiian government, but will come into possession of all the Hawaiian crown lands and other possessions.

Several senators have received definite information concerning the existence of the treaty, and are well acquainted with its terms, though they refuse to discuss the matter, having received the information in confidence. The knowledge of the existence of the treaty has been communicated to members of the committee on foreign relations, and also to members of the finance committee. In the Republican caucuses the subject of the treaty had been hinted at, but in rather a vague manner. Senators asserted that there were in progress negotiations looking to annexation, but they would not say that they knew a treaty had been drawn, nor would they give any assurances that it would soon be sent to the Senate. In private conversation with other Senators, however, they gave information that was definite enough to satisfy those with whom they talked that the treaty was not only to be sent in, but that it was now already drawn and only awaiting the signatures of the officers of the two governments to complete. It is known that the approval of the Committee on Foreign Relations is assured, as eight members of the committee have approved its terms. This will enable the committee to speedily report the treaty to the Senate, so that it may be taken up immediately after the tariff bill is disposed of.

The Senate has been canvassed to ascertain the extent of the Senators favoring annexation, and while there are some Senators who are non-committal, the supporters of the proposition say they believe that they can count upon the two-thirds vote necessary to insure ratification.

PRESIDENT ARRIVES

And Takes Up Appointments This Morning.

Washington, June 15.—The President party arrived as per program this morning and the President at once went to his office and took up official business. It is believed a number of important appointments will be made today. Kentuckians are consumed with expectancy.

THE TARIFF DEBATE.

A Tilt Between Hour and Tillman in the Senate.

One vote taken 26 to 29 in favor of Sugar Schedule.

Washington, June 14.—The Senate debate on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill proceeded today with only one diverting incident to relieve the monotony into which the discussion had lapsed. This was the sharp exchange between Mr. Hour, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Tillman, of South Carolina, representing the two extremes of senatorial procedure. Mr. Tillman again resorted to published charges of irregularity in connection with the sugar schedule, and asserted that the Senate would stand convicted before the American people if it failed to investigate the charges. Mr. Hour calmly and impressively repelled this statement, his tone and language being calculated as a rebuke. He declared the vague charges of irregularity were not only preposterous, but infamous.

Mr. Allison, in charge of the bill, made another speech in defense of the schedule, presenting tables which he declared proved that the sugar refiners received less protection under the existing law. Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) spoke at length in favor of his amendment to place on the free list articles controlled by trusts, arranging the various large trusts. Mr. Allen (Neb.) urged legal procedure against the trusts.

Only one roll-call occurred during the day, on Mr. Tillman's amendment to place all sugars on the same basis. This was rejected—26 to 29. Mr. McHenry (La.) voted with the Republicans in the negative, and Senators Pettigrew and Maudslowe with the Democrats in the affirmative.

For an Old Crime. Princeton, Ky., June 15.—Moses Hobbs killed Lee Holman forty-five years ago. No action was taken until Saturday, when the grand jury indicted him for murder. He was arrested and lodged in jail and his trial will take place Friday next. The principal witnesses to the affair are still living. Holman was murdered on account of illicit relations between Hobbs and his wife.

To Fill a Vacancy. Princeton, Ky., June 15.—A. D. Moore was selected by the joint attorney and Populist committee yesterday to fill the vacancy for county attorney caused by the resignation of J. T. Coleman, the present nominee. Mr. Moore was a candidate for the position before the April primary.

BARNEY BARNATO.

The South African Diamond King, Jumps Overboard.

AND IS DROWNED AT SEA.

President Arrives at Washington and Takes Up Appointments.

J. R. KEVIL FOR MAYOR OF PRINCETON.

London, June 14.—A special dispatch from Funchal, Island of Madeira, off the west coast of Morocco, says that on the arrival there today of the British steamship Seol, which left Table Bay, (Cape Town) on June 2, for Southampton, it was announced that Barney Barnato, the South African "diamond king" who was among the passengers, had committed suicide by leaping overboard. His body was recovered.

London, June 15.—The "Daily Telegraph," which announces the death of Barney Barnato while a passenger on the Seol from Cape Town, says, on the authority of a news agency, that he fell overboard. Barney Barnato was in many respects the most remarkable speculator of the century. Of all the Englishmen who have taken part in the development of South Africa two only have secured a world-wide reputation. These have been Cecil Rhodes and Barnett Isaacson, more often and less respectfully styled Barney. Barnato was an assumed name—a sort of stage name—for he began his life in South Africa by exhibiting a trick donkey, some twenty-five years ago. He was then about 20 years of age.

Barnato was an English Jew and illustrated in an extraordinary way the financial genius of his race. Up to the point where his fortunes began to decline he made money by leaps and bounds, and in 1895, when his good fortune was at its zenith, he was estimated to control interests worth in the neighborhood of a hundred million pounds. It was the fashion to call him the richest man in the world.

IN AMUSEMENT CIRCLES.

Good Crowds at the Parks Last Night.

The Complete Cast for "Queen Esther, the Opera.

The first production of "Queen Esther" by the Casino Theater Stock Company was given last night to a large crowd—a crowd that was very gratifying to the management—confirming the weather.

The performance was pronounced by all present one of the best ever witnessed in Paducah. In fact, magnificent, and the applause was liberal and well merited. Each member of the troupe acquitted him or herself admirably, the acting being much better than in any of the previous plays, which means a great deal.

The scenery and stage settings were elegant, and the performance passed off without a hitch.

Tonight a feature will be the appearance of Mr. Charlemagne Kach-ler, who will recite "The Sabbath Won the Race." Mr. Kachler, as stated yesterday, is here on a brief visit, en route to the seashore to spend the summer, and will appear before a Paducah audience simply by request. The theater will no doubt be packed tonight and the remainder of the week.

Below is the complete cast of "Queen Esther," which will be produced under the auspices of the First Christian church, Thursday night at Morton's opera house. The synopsis makes the opera very attractive.

Esther was born in Persia 500 years before Christ. Being an orphan from infancy she was adopted by her uncle, Mordecai, who, recognizing her great natural beauty trained her in the accomplishments of highest womanhood. She was chosen by the King of the Realm to be his wife and Queen. She did not disclose her nationality. Hannan was Premier and favorite of the King. Hannan hated Mordecai because he would not worship him as the King had commanded. He did not know Morde-cai's relation to the Queen. To be revenge he obtained a decree for destroying all the Jews in the provinces. Mordecai discovers the plot and charges the Queen to petition the King for the safety of her people, which she does at the peril of her life, on account of the law that no one shall go unto the King unbidden.
The King hears her petition, and "assua" is defeated. Hannan has prepared a gallows for Mordecai. An attendant informs the King of the plot. The King orders Hannan to be hanged from it and proclaims Mordecai Premier in his stead. After this the people rejoice.

Some Curiosities of Science.
The late Sir B. W. Richardson is credited with the following curious information on suicides: The rate of suicides is highest in the last four days of June and lowest in February; more common among Protestants than Roman Catholics and rarest among the Jews. It increases with education and decreases with railways and telegraphs.
More men than women are swayed by the influence and the average of suicides is set down at 12 in every 100,000.

Assessed Against Capt. Roberts and Mr. Everts.

Capt. Tom Roberts was fined $5 and costs yesterday afternoon in district court. Winchester's court on a bench-warrant for the peace charge. The fine was for the difficulty he had with Mr.
Tom Everts on primary election night.

Mr. Everts, in Justice Winchester's court, was fined $5 and costs for the part he took in the difficulty.

Supply and Demand.

High prices increase the production of any article and lessen the consumption; hence low prices decrease the production and increase the consumption.

Many manufacturers expected better times and bigger sales and made too much stuff for the spring and summer trade of 1897. The manufacturer's way out of such a dilemma is to cut the price to induce somebody to use up the stuff.

We are among the few cash buyers who have bought up these goods to sell to our customers at half prices. Out of self defense many merchants will claim to own goods at our low prices, but the only safe way is to come here and see.

Laws are here for 2c and 3c and 1 1/2 c, that were double.

Beautiful wash goods we have seen elsewhere for 10c, are now here for 5c a yard.

Handsome ones that were 20c are here for 10c.

Taffeta mulls that were 25c early are now here for 12 1/2 c.

Leather belts, all colors, that were 50c, now here for 25c.

Ladies' vests that were 5c, now 3c. Very handsome vests are here for 7 and 8c. Bleached table linens that were 10c now here for 5c.

Other table linens very low. Hand towels at 4, 6 and 12 1/2 c; very special. Dotted swisses and dotted dimities, manufacturer's seconds that you can hardly tell from the firsts, worth 20c, for 10c a yard.

Choice apron check gingham at 3 1/2, 4 and 4 1/2 c a yard. Cali-cates at 3 1/2, 4, 4 1/2 and 5c a yard.
Use unbleached 10-4 sheeting for 12 1/2 c a yard. Ready made bleached sheets for 35c to 45c, worth double.

Solid finished yard wide bleached homestee at 4, 4 1/2, 5, 6, 7 and 7 1/2 c a yard. Ladies' fast black hose that were 20c, now 12 1/2 c.

The world's unequalled seamless black, 3 for 25c. The early season's stock, now, four pairs for 25c.

BICYCLE NOTES.
To-day work began on the new bicycle track to be located on the east side of La Belle park. The grass is driven by Engineer Wilcox probably tomorrow. The track will likely be completed in a short time.

Local wheelman have decided to make their century run on next Sunday, the 29th a success, and thus for determination to participate. The riders will be paced by Messrs. Ed Mott and Oscar Hank.

Fountain avenue will be the most popular thoroughfare around Paducah for wheelman and women when it is thoroughly rolled.

One of the most important matters to be considered at the Kentucky division meet at Cynthiana is the treatment of the wheelmen by the railroads of the state. Mr. Orville Lawson, of this city, is chairman of the committee. There are stories of overcharges on account of the transportation of wheels, ejection from trains by unreasonable conductors, smashed wheels through the carelessness of baggage men and other injustices that the wheelman have had to bear.

Fin-de-Siècle club will be entertained by Mrs. W. F. Paxton in DIARY OF AN OFFICE BOY.

Items That He Jotted Down During His "Spare" Time.

The boy in a certain downtown office keeps a diary. The following entries are merely fragmentary and relate to his employer's experience in securing a satisfactory typewriter.

"Say, I nearly died a-dying" to-day.
She wasn't much on looks and was so serious that her lack of hair shook down I felt sorry for her, help me. The boss asked in distant and she banged away on the keys like a good fellow for about 15 minutes and then all of a sudden she went in a heap and said:
"Would you mind saying that over again? I forgot to put my paper on the machine." Say, you can just bet the air was in rainbow shades for about fourteen minutes and a quarter. . . .

"This one seems to be right in the wheel with us. She's a trooly-looly and to mistake. Worries her machine like a railway train belching out so many words that I can't hear her. She's a chocolate cream for lunch. She's a daisy dicker, too. The boss told her to consider herself engaged, and I hope we have got settled down at last. I had to have kept on receiving and making myself agreeable to so many furies as I have been doing lately it be a would have been struck for more dough. A man can't do that kind of work for any three a week. The girl has cost more money. This girl's name is Ritchie-Miss Beveling. I called her, just for a jolly. She only laughed, but treated me to a cream, so I know I'm all there. . . .

"Say, the boss' old lady didn't drop in yesterday, neither. Oh, no, of course not. And she didn't have a wild look in her eye when she spotted Beveling?
I knew what was coming, you can bet. It was Beveling, chasing your self, just as the boss had to tell her next morning. Although he did give her a whole week's dose in advance.
He's good-hearted, for a boss, but he lets his old pair of bloomers run the whole game for him. She'd been after me long ago if I hadn't told her that we used to live on Fifth avenue once, and that since we failed lost all his money he would not let me go anywhere but to the Wyandham roadhouse. . . .

"This girl's face ain't in the running at all, but you can bet your life that her name is. I tried to smash it, and she grappled me by the collar and shook me till my back teeth rattled. The very first time she planned on it she broke the capital M all to bits and took a piece of the steel flew up and took the boss over the left window. . . .

"I told the boss that he ought to try a week operator, and stop fooling with the lady push, and he said it was the only sensible thing that he had ever heard me get off. We got one, too, that's pretty fair, but he's getting a little bossy, and unless he squares himself with me I'm afraid we'll have to bounce him. But I'm tired of this changing business that I'm going to try and stand
